President Speech

The Club President, Lee Sing Foo welcome all members, spouse and friends who spend their precious time to attend the AGM.

As nominated President, he is honored and humbled by the support, encouragement and co-operation given to him fellow colleagues in the committee and the very flexible and boisterous members, which numbered 60 as at end of 2009. The President envisage a bright future for the club. A club one is proud to be associated with and filled with passionate people and one big happy family.

During the year 2009, the Club have successfully organized a few events, namely; Ko Lanta, Rendezvous in Cameron Highlands, Members night, the Club maiden overland trip; Gems of Cha Am and finally Charm of Isaan during the year end long holiday.

All our members are very satisfied on the itinerary and events planned and they strive for us to organize more events during 2010. Details on 2010 event calendar will be presented by the Club Secretary.

Lastly, the President hope everyone here enjoy the food and the programs today and looking forward in excitement to meet up with you guys, gals and kids again in our next event.
